HOSPITALITY AND TOURISM MANAGEMENT, BSHTM

The Bachelor of Science in Hospitality and Tourism Management (BSHTM)

The BSHTM is a 120-credit hour undergraduate degree program designed for students of who want to pursue a career in the hospitality, tourism management and meetings/events industries. The program requires successful completion of 54 credit hours of study in hospitality management courses including a required 3-credit hour internship; 36 credit hours for the University's general education course requirements in humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences; and 30 credit hours of general elective courses.

All Hospitality majors are advised by the college and can develop close mentoring relationships with faculty beginning early in their attendance at Roosevelt.

Freshmen

Traditional freshmen enroll in the Hospitality degree's major courses from the start of their third semester, providing a quick path to developing a connection to the field, area of focus, and chosen career path.

Transfer Students

The BSHTM degree allows for transfer credits from community college Hospitality programs and transfer from other programs and majors, 200-level background hospitality courses may be completed either at Roosevelt or through acceptable transfer work from an approved community college. All transfer students must complete a minimum of 36 credit hours of HOSM courses at the university including HOSM 201, HOSM 210 or HOSM 231, HOSM 230 and HOSM 290.

Your degree map is a general guide suggesting courses to complete each term on the academic pathway to your degree. It is based on the most current scheduling information from your academic program. Your program's degree map is reviewed annually and updated as schedules change (although you retain the same course requirements as long as you are continuously enrolled in your degree program).

Always work closely with your academic advisor to understand curriculum requirements and scheduling, as each student's academic plan can look slightly different.
